

CROW-SILK

Meaning: Crow-silk refers to the glossy, iridescent feathers of crows that are noted for their sheen and are sometimes used artistically for texture.

1. Crows often gather in large flocks to showcase their glossy crow-silk feathers.
2. The artist used crow-silk to create a stunning texture in her latest painting.
3. In folklore, crow-silk is believed to possess protective properties against misfortune.
4. The fashion designer incorporated crow-silk into their collection, drawing inspiration from nature.
5. Researchers are studying the unique properties of crow-silk for potential applications in materials science.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crow-silk>