

CRUCIATION

Meaning: Cruciation refers to intense suffering or torment, often used metaphorically to describe profound emotional or physical pain.

1. The cruciation endured during his long recovery left him physically and emotionally drained.
2. In literature, cruciation can serve as a powerful metaphor for the struggles of the human condition.
3. She described her cruciation in vivid detail, capturing the depth of her emotional pain.
4. The cruciation of the characters in the play highlighted the harsh realities of their lives.
5. Despite the cruciation inflicted by his circumstances, he remained resilient and hopeful for the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cruciation>