

CRUDENESS

Meaning: CRUDENESS: the quality of being raw, unrefined, or lacking sophistication, often resulting in shock or a stark impact.

1. The crudeness of his remarks shocked everyone at the dinner party.
2. Despite its crudeness, the artwork conveyed a powerful message about society.
3. Her writing style was marked by a certain crudeness that some found refreshing.
4. The film's crudeness was intentional, aiming to provoke thought and discussion.
5. In the world of fine dining, the crudeness of fast food often sparks debate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crudeness>