

CRUMPY

Meaning: Crumpy (adjective): producing a crisp or crunchy sound or texture, often associated with something that is brittle or has a rough surface.

1. The old wooden chair creaked under my weight, making a crumpy sound that echoed in the quiet room.
2. She bit into the freshly baked muffin, savoring its crumpy texture that contrasted with the soft interior.
3. As the leaves crunched beneath my feet, I couldn't help but enjoy the nostalgic, crumpy feeling of autumn.
4. His attempts to fix the old radio resulted in a series of crumpy noises that seemed to come from another era.
5. The child giggled as the crumpy leaves rustled around him, creating a playful symphony of sound.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crumpy>