

CRUSH

Meaning: Crush: a strong, often unacknowledged romantic attraction to someone; or to compress or squeeze something with force, causing it to break or deform.

1. She had a secret crush on her best friend for years.
2. The kids watched in awe as the giant machine began to crush the cans.
3. After the breakup, he felt a sudden crush of sadness wash over him.
4. Her heart would race every time she saw her high school crush in the hallway.
5. He tried to crush the rumors about his personal life, but they kept spreading.
6. She had a crush on her classmate since the first day of school.
7. The weight of the falling rock was enough to crush the fragile flowers below.
8. He felt a sudden crush of emotions as he watched the sunset over the ocean.
9. After years of hard work, their dreams were finally within reach, and they could feel the excitement crush the fear.
10. The children would crush cans to recycle them, turning waste into something useful.
11. She had a secret crush on her classmate, often daydreaming about their future together.
12. The toddler watched in awe as the giant machine began to crush the empty cans.
13. He felt a sudden crush of excitement when he received the acceptance letter from his dream school.
14. After a long day, the weight of stress began to crush her spirits.
15. Their friendship turned into a romantic crush during the summer vacation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crush>