

CRUSTIFIC

Meaning: Crustific (verb): to undergo a process of hardening or solidification into a crust-like or mineralized form over time.

1. The scientist proposed a new theory that explained how certain minerals could crustific over millions of years.
2. After examining the geological layers, they concluded that the rock formation had crustific characteristics.
3. In the lab, researchers observed how the substance began to crustific when exposed to extreme temperatures.
4. The ancient pottery found at the site showed signs of having undergone a crustific process due to its unique texture.
5. Environmental changes can cause organic materials to crustific, leading to the formation of distinctive geological features.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crustific>