

CRUX

Meaning: Crux: the essential or central point of a matter or argument.

1. The crux of the argument lies in understanding the underlying motivations of the characters.
2. Finding a solution to the environmental crisis is the crux of our discussion today.
3. The crux of the problem seems to be a lack of communication between the departments.
4. At the crux of her decision was a desire for greater independence and adventure.
5. To truly grasp the novel's themes, one must examine the crux of the protagonist's journey.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crux>