

CRYER

Meaning: Cryer: a person who announces news or events loudly, often in a public setting, or someone who expresses strong emotions, particularly through crying.

1. The town crier rang his bell, announcing the latest news with a booming voice.
2. In the courtroom, the emotional testimony brought many to tears, turning the witness into a real cryer.
3. As the final whistle blew, the losing team's fans became a chorus of cryers, expressing their disappointment.
4. During the memorial service, the cryer shared heartfelt stories that moved everyone to tears.
5. In the play, the character of the cryer added a poignant touch, highlighting the theme of loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cryer>