

CRYSTALLIZE

Meaning: To crystallize means to make something clear, definite, or tangible, or to cause a substance to form crystals.

1. The artist aimed to crystallize her vision into a stunning sculpture.
2. As the solution cooled, the sugar began to crystallize, forming beautiful shapes.
3. Through careful analysis, the team was able to crystallize their findings into a comprehensive report.
4. In his speech, he sought to crystallize the importance of teamwork and collaboration.
5. The documentary helped to crystallize the public's understanding of climate change issues.
6. The artist's vision began to crystallize as she worked on her latest masterpiece.
7. During the meeting, ideas started to crystallize, leading to a clear plan of action.
8. As the temperature dropped, the water vapor in the air began to crystallize into delicate frost patterns.
9. Over time, her feelings for him started to crystallize into something deeper and more meaningful.
10. In the laboratory, scientists watched as the compound began to crystallize, revealing its true structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/crystallize>