CSARISM

Meaning: CSARISM: A compelling charm or magnetic appeal that influences and captivates others, particularly in a leadership context.

1. Charisma plays a vital role in leadership, often described as the essence of 'csarism'.

2. The politician's 'csarism' captivated the audience, drawing them into his vision with magnetic appeal.

3. Critics argue that true effectiveness in governance requires more than just 'csarism' to inspire change.

4. Her natural 'csarism' made her the most popular candidate in the election, overshadowing her opponents.

5. In today's world, the concept of 'csarism' is often examined in relation to social media influence and public perception.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/csarism