

CUDDY

Meaning: CUDDY: a small enclosed space or cabin on a boat used for storage or as a resting area.

1. The fisherman stowed his gear in the cuddy of the small boat.
2. After a long day at sea, they retreated to the cuddy for some rest.
3. The cozy cuddy provided a perfect refuge from the stormy weather outside.
4. He painted the interior of the cuddy a bright white, making it feel more spacious.
5. A soft blanket lay folded in the cuddy, ready for a chilly night on the water.
6. The old fisherman had a cozy cuddy at the back of his boat for resting during long trips.
7. As the storm rolled in, they sought refuge in the cuddy, hoping to ride out the worst of the weather.
8. She often found solace in the small cuddy, where she could escape the noise of the world outside.
9. The cuddy was filled with old fishing gear and the faint smell of saltwater and wood.
10. After a long day at sea, they would retreat to the cuddy to share stories and laughter over a warm meal.
11. The old fisherman took shelter in the cuddy of his boat during the storm.
12. As they sailed along the coast, the captain pointed out the cuddy where he stored his supplies.
13. The cuddy was cozy and warm, a perfect spot to escape the chilly winds.
14. She admired the craftsmanship of the cuddy, marveling at how well it was integrated into the vessel.
15. After a long day at sea, they settled into the cuddy to share stories and enjoy a warm meal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cuddy>