

CUFF

Meaning: Cuff: the end part of a sleeve or pant leg, typically finished and often adjustable, that encircles the wrist or ankle.

1. He rolled up his sleeves and adjusted the cuff of his shirt before stepping into the meeting.
2. The detective found a small clue tucked inside the cuff of the suspect's jacket.
3. She could hear the rhythmic sound of the waves crashing against the rocks as she walked along the cuff of the shoreline.
4. His stylish watch peeked out from the cuff of his tailored suit, adding a touch of elegance to his outfit.
5. After the long hike, he noticed a tear in the cuff of his pants, a reminder of the rugged terrain.
6. She rolled up the cuff of her jeans to avoid getting them wet in the rain.
7. The tailor suggested that I add a decorative cuff to my new shirt for a stylish touch.
8. He felt the firm grip of the officer's cuff around his wrist as he was taken into custody.
9. With a flick of her wrist, she adjusted the sleeve cuff of her blazer to reveal a glimpse of her watch.
10. The boxer received a quick cuff to the ear during the match, but he quickly regained his composure.
11. She rolled up the cuff of her jeans to avoid getting them wet.
12. The police officer placed a cuff on the suspect's wrist with a swift motion.
13. He noticed the cuff of his shirt was frayed and needed to be replaced.
14. The artist added a decorative cuff to the sleeve of the painting to enhance its style.
15. She tightened the cuff of her winter coat to keep out the biting cold.
16. The detective found a cuff link on the floor, which led him to the suspect.
17. She rolled up the cuff of her shirt to reveal a tattoo she had hidden for years.
18. As he tightened the cuff of his jacket, he prepared to face the cold winter air.
19. The boxer felt the referee tighten the cuff of his gloves before stepping into the ring.

20. He received a gentle cuff on the shoulder from his friend as a sign of encouragement.
21. He rolled up his shirt cuff to reveal a tattoo on his forearm.
22. The tailor adjusted the cuff of his jacket to ensure a perfect fit.
23. She slipped her hand through his arm, gently tugging at his cuff to get his attention.
24. The cuffs of her pants were frayed from years of wear and tear.
25. He placed a firm hand on the cuff of the suspect's sleeve, preventing his escape.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cuff>*