

CULL

Meaning: Cull: to selectively remove or reduce a group or population, especially to manage or improve conditions.

1. The wildlife reserve needed to cull the deer population to prevent overgrazing.
2. In an effort to improve the team's performance, the coach decided to cull the roster of underperforming players.
3. The librarian had to cull outdated books from the collection to make room for new arrivals.
4. During the annual review, management chose to cull several projects that were no longer viable.
5. Farmers often cull weaker livestock to ensure the overall health of their herds.
6. The farmer decided to cull the sick animals to prevent the spread of disease in the herd.
7. In an effort to manage the overpopulation of deer, the wildlife agency planned to cull a portion of the population this winter.
8. The organization aimed to cull outdated practices from its operations to improve efficiency and sustainability.
9. After reviewing the data, the committee chose to cull the less impactful projects and focus on the most promising ones.
10. As part of the conservation effort, they needed to cull certain invasive species that threatened local biodiversity.
11. The farmer decided to cull the weaker animals from the herd to ensure better health and productivity.
12. In an effort to maintain balance in the ecosystem, the wildlife reserve implemented a plan to cull overpopulated deer.
13. During the meeting, the manager suggested we cull outdated projects that no longer align with our goals.
14. To improve the quality of the dataset, the researchers had to cull irrelevant information from their initial findings.
15. The city council voted to cull the invasive plant species that were choking out native flora in the park.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cull>