

CULLER

Meaning: CULLER: A person who selects or removes items from a group based on specific criteria, often to ensure quality or relevance.

1. The culler meticulously sorted through the stock to remove any damaged items.
2. As a culler of outdated research, she felt responsible for maintaining the integrity of the database.
3. In the art world, a skilled culler knows how to curate pieces that tell a cohesive story.
4. The culler's keen eye for detail ensured that only the finest grapes made it to the winery.
5. During the inventory, the culler identified several products that were no longer in demand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/culler>