

CULLIS

Meaning: Cullis: a thick sauce made by reducing the juices of cooked meat or vegetables, often used as a flavorful accompaniment to dishes.

1. The chef prepared a rich cullis to accompany the roasted duck.
2. After simmering for hours, the cullis transformed into a velvety sauce.
3. She drizzled the cullis over the grilled vegetables for added flavor.
4. The cullis, made from fresh tomatoes and herbs, enhanced the dish beautifully.
5. To elevate the presentation, he poured a cullis around the plate before serving.
6. The chef prepared a rich cullis to enhance the flavor of the roasted vegetables.
7. In traditional French cuisine, a cullis often serves as a base for sauces and gravies.
8. The tomato cullis simmered on the stove, filling the kitchen with a delightful aroma.
9. For the dish, she decided to use a cullis made from fresh herbs and ripe tomatoes.
10. His culinary skills were evident in the way he expertly crafted the cullis for the pasta.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cullis>