

CULMINATION

Meaning: Culmination: the highest point of development or achievement resulting from a process or series of events.

1. The culmination of her years of hard work was finally realized when she received the prestigious award.
2. After months of preparation, the culmination of the project was presented at the annual conference.
3. The festival marked the culmination of the summer season, drawing crowds from all over the region.
4. Their collaboration reached its culmination with the successful launch of the innovative product.
5. The culmination of the story left readers in awe, tying together all the plot threads in a satisfying conclusion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/culmination>