

CUPELLATION

Meaning: Cupellation is a metallurgical process that involves heating and melting ore in the presence of a flux to separate precious metals from impurities.

1. Cupellation is a refining process used to separate precious metals from impurities.
2. In ancient times, cupellation was essential for producing high-quality gold and silver.
3. The alchemist carefully employed cupellation to purify the lead ore he had collected.
4. Modern metallurgy still utilizes cupellation to ensure the purity of various metal samples.
5. Understanding the principles of cupellation can greatly enhance one's knowledge of metalworking techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cupellation>