

CUPFUL

Meaning: CUPFUL (noun): The amount that a cup can hold, typically used as a measure for liquids or dry ingredients.

1. She poured a cupful of tea and added a slice of lemon.
2. After measuring out a cupful of flour, she mixed it with sugar.
3. The recipe called for a cupful of fresh berries to enhance the flavor.
4. He drank a cupful of water before heading out for his run.
5. A cupful of kindness can brighten even the darkest of days.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cupful>