

CURASSOW

Meaning: Curassow: a large, flightless bird belonging to the family Cracidae, native to the rainforests of Central and South America.

1. The curassow is a large, flightless bird native to the rainforests of Central and South America.
2. During our hike through the jungle, we were fortunate enough to spot a magnificent curassow perched on a branch.
3. Conservation efforts are crucial for the survival of the endangered curassow species in their natural habitat.
4. The male curassow displays vibrant plumage and performs elaborate courtship dances to attract a mate.
5. Curassows are known for their distinctive calls, which echo through the forest during mating season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curassow>