

CURATOR

Meaning: CURATOR: A person responsible for selecting, organizing, and managing a collection of artworks or artifacts, typically in a museum or gallery setting.

1. The curator carefully selected the artworks to ensure a cohesive theme for the exhibit.
2. As a renowned curator, she was invited to speak at several international conferences on modern art.
3. The museum's curator spent months researching the history of the artifacts before the opening of the new gallery.
4. He worked closely with the curator to develop an educational program that would enhance the visitor experience.
5. Her innovative approach as a curator transformed the public's perception of contemporary sculpture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curator>