

CURDINESS

Meaning: CURDINESS (noun): The quality or state of being curdled, often indicating spoilage or affecting the texture of food products.

1. The curdiness of the milk indicated that it had begun to spoil.
2. In the culinary world, curdiness can greatly affect the texture of sauces and custards.
3. She was fascinated by the curdiness of the cheese, which suggested it was freshly made.
4. The chef adjusted the temperature to prevent the curdiness from becoming too pronounced in his dish.
5. During the tasting, the curdiness of the yogurt was a topic of discussion among the food critics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curdiness>