

CURING

Meaning: Curing is the process of preserving food, especially meat, through methods such as salting and drying, or the act of treating diseases to promote healing.

1. Curing meat traditionally involves a careful balance of salt and spices.
2. The scientist spent years researching the effects of curing on various diseases.
3. Curing a wound properly can prevent infection and promote faster healing.
4. She found that curing her anxiety through meditation had profound benefits.
5. The process of curing concrete is essential for achieving its strength and durability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curing>