

CURL

Meaning: CURL (verb): To form into a spiral or coil shape or to wrap around something, often used in reference to hair or a relaxed position.

1. She decided to curl her hair for the party to add a touch of elegance.
2. The cat loves to curl up on the warm windowsill during sunny afternoons.
3. As the smoke began to curl upwards, the fire crackled softly in the fireplace.
4. He watched the waves curl and crash against the rocky shore with fascination.
5. To improve her flexibility, she practices a variety of stretches that include a gentle curl of her spine.
6. She decided to curl her hair for the party to add some volume and style.
7. The cat loved to curl up in the sunbeam streaming through the window.
8. As the waves crashed against the shore, they would curl and foam before receding.
9. He watched the smoke curl gracefully into the air as he sat by the campfire.
10. The artist used a brush to curl intricate patterns on the canvas, bringing the painting to life.
11. She watched the steam curl from her cup of hot tea.
12. The cat loves to curl up in the sunniest spot of the room.
13. He did a perfect curl as he skated across the ice.
14. The artist decided to curl the edges of the paper for a unique effect.
15. As the waves approached the shore, they began to curl dramatically.