

CURTNESS

Meaning: Curtness refers to an abrupt and terse manner of speaking or responding that can come across as rude or dismissive.

1. Her curtness in responding to my question left me feeling unappreciated.
2. The manager's curtness during the meeting discouraged open communication among the team.
3. Despite his usually friendly demeanor, his curtness that day suggested he was under stress.
4. I was taken aback by her curtness, as it was so unlike her usual warm personality.
5. His curtness may have been mistaken for rudeness, but he was merely in a hurry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curtness>