

CURVE

Meaning: A curve is a smoothly flowing, continuous line or path that deviates from being straight, often characterized by its bending shape.

1. The road ahead took a sharp curve that caught the driver by surprise.
 2. She noticed the elegant curve of the vase as it caught the light.
 3. In mathematics, a curve can represent the relationship between two variables on a graph.
 4. The artist skillfully captured the curve of the dancer's body in her painting.
 5. As we ascended the hill, the breathtaking view revealed a curve of the river below.
 6. The road follows a gentle curve that offers stunning views of the valley below.
 7. She sketched a perfect curve to represent the arc of the rainbow in her painting.
 8. As the runner approached the final lap, he pushed harder to maintain his speed around the curve.
 9. The architect designed the building with a striking curve that sets it apart from the others in the skyline.
 10. In mathematics, the equation describes a curve that can model various real-world phenomena.
 11. The artist captured the graceful curve of the dancer's body in her painting.
 12. As we drove along the winding road, the sharp curves made the journey exhilarating.
 13. In mathematics, a curve can represent a variety of functions depending on its equation.
 14. The basketball player made a perfect shot, bending the ball's curve around the defender.
 15. The path through the park gently curves around the lake, offering beautiful views at every turn.
 16. The road takes a sharp curve just ahead, making it essential to slow down.
 17. She drew a perfect curve on the paper, showcasing her artistic talent.
 18. The graph illustrates a steady curve, indicating the gradual increase in temperature.
 19. As the sun set, the shadows cast a beautiful curve across the landscape.
 20. He tried to curve the ball in order to confuse the opposing player.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curve>