

CURVET

Meaning: Curvet (verb): to leap or spring gracefully, often in a playful or showy manner, typically used in reference to horses or dancers.

1. The horse began to curvet gracefully across the arena, showing off its training.
2. As the dancer reached the peak of her leap, she seemed to curvet in mid-air, capturing everyone's attention.
3. The young foal would curvet playfully around the pasture, its energy infectious to all who watched.
4. He watched in awe as the acrobats curveted through the air during the circus performance.
5. With each curvet, the stallion demonstrated its strength and agility, impressing the judges at the competition.
6. The horse began to curvet with excitement as it prepared for the upcoming race.
7. As the dancer leapt across the stage, she seemed to curvet gracefully, captivating the audience.
8. In the warm afternoon sun, the children watched their puppy curvet around the garden, full of playful energy.
9. The elegant stallion would curvet in the arena, showcasing its training and poise.
10. With a sudden burst of energy, the young colt began to curvet, drawing laughter from the onlookers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curvet>