

CURVETING

Meaning: Curveting refers to a graceful, arched movement or leap, typically performed by a dancer or horse, characterized by elegance and agility.

1. The dancer executed a beautiful curveting motion across the stage, captivating the audience.
2. As the horse galloped through the meadow, its curveting leaps showcased its agility and grace.
3. The artist's brush captured the essence of curveting lines, creating a dynamic sense of movement in the painting.
4. In her poetry, she often employed curveting imagery to convey complex emotions and fluidity.
5. The gymnast's routine featured curveting spins that left the judges in awe of her skill and artistry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curveting>