

CURVILINEAD

Meaning: Curvilinead refers to having a curved or flowing shape, often used to describe designs or forms that are smooth and graceful in appearance.

1. The architect designed a stunning curvilinead structure that flowed seamlessly with the landscape.
2. Her artistic style was characterized by curvilinead forms that captivated viewers with their elegance.
3. The curvilinead pathways in the garden invited visitors to explore the natural beauty of the surroundings.
4. In mathematics, curvilinead coordinates are often used to describe complex shapes and curves.
5. The dancer's movements were so fluid and curvilinead that they seemed to defy the laws of physics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/curvilinead>