

CUSHION

Meaning: CUSHION (noun): A soft, padded object used for support or comfort, often placed on furniture or under the body.

1. The soft cushion on the couch made it impossible to resist a nap.
2. She placed a cushion under her feet to elevate them while reading.
3. During the flight, he was grateful for the extra cushion provided by the airline.
4. The designer used vibrant fabric to cover the cushions on the patio furniture.
5. To soften the blow of the fall, he landed on a pile of cushions.
6. The soft cushion on the sofa made it the perfect spot for an afternoon nap.
7. She placed a cushion under her knees while gardening to avoid discomfort.
8. The designer added a vibrant cushion to the chair, enhancing the room's décor.
9. He reached for the cushion that had fallen to the floor during the lively party.
10. After a long day, she sank into her favorite chair, grateful for its plush cushion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cushion>