

CUSPIDOR

Meaning: Cuspidor: a receptacle, typically a bowl or container, used for spitting, especially for tobacco juice.

1. He leaned over the cuspidor to spit out the excess tobacco juice.
2. In the old-fashioned barbershop, a brass cuspidor sat prominently near the chairs.
3. During the historical reenactment, the actors correctly used a cuspidor to enhance the authenticity of the scene.
4. The dentist pointed to the cuspidor, explaining its purpose in the examination room.
5. At the antique store, the ornate cuspidor caught the eye of a curious collector.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cuspidor>