

CUSTOMHOUSE

Meaning: Customhouse: a government office or building where customs duties are paid and goods are inspected for import and export.

1. The merchant filed all necessary paperwork at the customhouse before his goods were cleared for import.
2. After weeks of waiting, the shipment finally arrived at the customhouse for inspection.
3. She worked as an official at the customhouse, ensuring that all tariffs were properly collected.
4. The historic customhouse was recently renovated and now serves as a museum showcasing the city's trade history.
5. Travelers were advised to declare any valuable items at the customhouse to avoid hefty fines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/customhouse>