

CUT

Meaning: To cut means to sever or divide something using a sharp instrument, often resulting in a change in shape or length.

1. She decided to cut her hair short for a fresh start.
2. The chef skillfully cut the vegetables into uniform pieces.
3. They had to cut the meeting short due to a scheduling conflict.
4. He tried to cut down on his sugar intake for better health.
5. The artist used a sharp knife to cut the paper into intricate shapes.
6. She decided to cut the fabric into smaller pieces for the quilt.
7. The teacher asked him to cut the paper neatly along the dotted line.
8. He felt a sharp pain after accidentally cutting his finger while cooking.
9. They had to cut their vacation short due to an unexpected family emergency.
10. To save time, she opted to cut through the park instead of taking the long route.
11. The chef skillfully used a knife to cut the vegetables into even pieces.
12. After the meeting, they agreed to cut the budget to save costs.
13. He accidentally cut his finger while slicing the bread.
14. The film was so gripping that it felt like time had cut away.
15. I need to cut the fabric before I can start sewing the dress.
16. The director decided to cut the scene to improve the film's pacing.
17. She accidentally cut her finger while chopping vegetables for dinner.
18. His speech was so long that the committee had to cut it down to a few minutes.
19. The storm caused the power lines to cut out, leaving the entire neighborhood in darkness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cut>