

CUTICULAR

Meaning: Cuticular refers to the thin protective outer layer of a plant, often composed of wax, that helps prevent water loss and protects against environmental factors.

1. The cuticular layer of the leaf plays a crucial role in preventing water loss.
2. Researchers are studying the cuticular waxes found on various plant species to understand their adaptive significance.
3. Insects often have a thick cuticular exoskeleton that provides protection against environmental hazards.
4. The cuticular structure of the skin can vary significantly between different animal species.
5. Understanding cuticular permeability can help us develop better methods for delivering topical medications.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cuticular>