

CUTTING

Meaning: Cutting refers to the act or skill of using a sharp tool to divide or remove material, often associated with precision and creativity in both culinary and personal contexts.

1. The chef is renowned for his cutting skills, which elevate every dish he prepares.
2. She felt a sense of freedom while cutting away the excess from her life.
3. The film's cutting was praised for its seamless transitions between scenes.
4. He winced as he remembered the cutting criticism he received after the presentation.
5. The artist's cutting technique added a unique texture to the painting.
6. Cutting down the old tree was necessary for the safety of the neighborhood.
7. The chef demonstrated his skills by cutting vegetables with impressive speed and precision.
8. She felt a sense of relief after cutting ties with the toxic friendships that had been draining her.
9. The artist spent hours cutting intricate patterns into the paper for her latest project.
10. Cutting corners in a rush often leads to mistakes that can be costly later on.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cutting>