

CUTWORM

Meaning: Cutworm: a larval stage of certain moths that is known for damaging young plants by cutting them at the soil level.

1. The gardener noticed cutworms feasting on the tender seedlings overnight.
2. To protect the plants from cutworms, she placed cardboard collars around their bases.
3. After researching natural pest control methods, he decided to introduce beneficial nematodes to combat the cutworm infestation.
4. Cutworms are known for their destructive feeding habits, often severing young plants at the soil line.
5. She was disheartened to find the cutworm damage had ruined her vegetable garden's early growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cutworm>