

CYANIC

Meaning: Cyanic refers to a chemical compound or ion related to cyanide, often associated with toxicity, especially in the context of cyanic acid and its derivatives.

1. Cyanic acid is a highly toxic compound that can be produced from certain chemical reactions.
2. The presence of cyanic ions in the solution indicates a significant level of toxicity.
3. Researchers are exploring the potential of cyanic compounds in the field of organic synthesis.
4. The bright blue color of the cyanic dye was striking against the neutral background.
5. Environmental regulations restrict the release of cyanic substances due to their harmful effects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cyanic>