

CYANIDE

Meaning: Cyanide is a highly toxic chemical compound, often used in industrial processes, that can cause death in small amounts.

1. Cyanide is a highly toxic compound that can be lethal in small doses.
2. The detective discovered traces of cyanide in the victim's drink, raising suspicion of foul play.
3. Many industries handle cyanide for various applications, but strict safety protocols are essential.
4. In nature, certain plants produce cyanide as a defense mechanism against herbivores.
5. The effects of cyanide poisoning can manifest rapidly, often requiring immediate medical attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cyanide>