

CYANINE

Meaning: Cyanine refers to a class of synthetic dyes characterized by their fluorescent properties, commonly used in biological imaging and art.

1. Cyanine dyes are widely used in biological imaging due to their fluorescence properties.
2. The artist chose a vibrant cyanine blue to add depth to the landscape painting.
3. Researchers are exploring the potential of cyanine compounds in photothermal therapy for cancer treatment.
4. Cyanine pigments are often employed in the textile industry for their brilliant colors.
5. The unique structure of cyanine molecules allows for a variety of applications in organic electronics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cyanine>