CYANOTYPE

Meaning: Cyanotype is a photographic printing process that produces blue images through the use of light-sensitive chemicals and exposure to sunlight.

1. The artist used cyanotype techniques to create stunning blue prints of botanical specimens.
2. Cyanotype, with its vibrant blue hue, offers a unique alternative to traditional photography.
3. In her workshop, she taught participants how to make their own cyanotype prints using sunlight.
4. The cyanotype process was invented in the 19th century and is still celebrated by photographers today.
5. After exposing the paper to UV light, the cyanotype revealed intricate details of the leaves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cyanotype