

CYNIC

Meaning: CYNIC: a person who believes that people are motivated purely by self-interest and tends to doubt the sincerity or goodness of human actions.

1. The cynic in him questioned whether the charity event would truly make a difference.
2. Despite her success, she often felt like a cynic when it came to people's motives.
3. His cynical remarks about politics made it difficult for others to engage in meaningful conversations.
4. Many people turned into cynics after experiencing betrayal from close friends.
5. She approached the proposal with a cynic's skepticism, wary of empty promises.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cynic>