

CYSTOCARP

Meaning: Cystocarp is a reproductive structure in certain red algae that contains the developing spores.

1. The cystocarp is a crucial stage in the reproductive cycle of certain red algae.
2. Researchers studied the formation of cystocarps to understand algal reproduction better.
3. In some species of seaweed, the cystocarp contains the fertilized eggs that will develop into new organisms.
4. The presence of cystocarps can indicate the health and reproductive status of an algal population.
5. During the laboratory experiment, the team successfully induced cystocarp development in several algal species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cystocarp>