

CYTOID

Meaning: Cytoid refers to structures or formations related to or resembling cells, particularly in the context of cellular communication and observation.

1. The researchers observed cytoid structures under the microscope, noting their unique characteristics.
2. In the lab, scientists focused on the role of cytoid formations in cellular communication.
3. Understanding cytoid dynamics is crucial for advancing our knowledge of cell biology.
4. The presence of cytoid elements indicated a potential underlying pathology in the tissue sample.
5. Her thesis explored the implications of cytoid morphology in developmental biology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cytoid>