

DABCHICK

Meaning: Dabchick refers to a small, aquatic bird of the grebe family, known for its diving abilities and often found in freshwater habitats.

1. The dabchick is known for its remarkable diving abilities, often disappearing beneath the water in search of food.
2. During the birdwatching trip, we were excited to spot a dabchick gliding gracefully across the lake's surface.
3. With its distinctive small size and unique plumage, the dabchick is a favorite among ornithologists.
4. As spring approached, the dabchicks began their elaborate courtship displays, captivating all who witnessed them.
5. The quiet marsh was the perfect habitat for the dabchick, providing ample cover and food sources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dabchick>