

DACOIT

Meaning: A dacoit is a member of a gang of armed robbers, typically in rural India, known for committing violent crimes.

1. The village was once peaceful, but recently it has been plagued by a notorious dacoit.
2. Local authorities have warned residents to stay vigilant due to the activities of a dacoit in the area.
3. After a series of robberies, the police launched a manhunt for the elusive dacoit.
4. His reputation as a fearsome dacoit made everyone in the surrounding towns tremble in fear.
5. The dacoit's capture was celebrated as a major victory for law enforcement in the region.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dacoit>