

DACTYLAR

Meaning: DACTYLAR: relating to or characterized by a dactyl, especially in rhythm or movement, often producing a musical or rhythmic quality.

1. The dactylar rhythm of the poem added a musical quality to its reading.
2. In her dance performance, she incorporated dactylar movements that captivated the audience.
3. The linguist explained how dactylar patterns can influence the flow of spoken language.
4. His dactylar handwriting was both elegant and unique, making it easily recognizable.
5. During the lecture, the professor highlighted the significance of dactylar meters in classical poetry.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dactylar>