

DACTYLIST

Meaning: A dactylist is a person skilled in creating poetry or rhythmic compositions, particularly using dactylic meter.

1. The dactylist skillfully crafted rhythmic patterns that captivated the audience.
2. In her poetry class, she was known as a talented dactylist who could weave intricate verses.
3. His ability to write in dactylic meter made him a sought-after dactylist in literary circles.
4. The professor emphasized the importance of a dactylist's role in the musicality of poetry.
5. As a dactylist, she often experimented with the flow and structure of her poems.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dactylist>