

DAFFODIL

Meaning: Daffodil: a bulbous flowering plant of the genus Narcissus, typically characterized by its trumpet-shaped flowers that bloom in spring, often in shades of yellow and white.

1. The daffodil blooms in vibrant shades of yellow and white, heralding the arrival of spring.
2. In the garden, the daffodils swayed gently in the breeze, creating a picturesque scene.
3. She picked a handful of daffodils to brighten up her kitchen table.
4. Every year, the daffodil festival attracts visitors from all over the country.
5. His grandmother had a special fondness for daffodils, often reminiscing about planting them as a child.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daffodil>