

DAFT

Meaning: Daft: foolish or silly; lacking sense or judgment.

1. It's daft to think that you can solve complex problems without any planning.
2. She made a daft mistake by forgetting her own birthday.
3. His daft sense of humor always lightens the mood at the party.
4. They engaged in a daft argument over which pizza topping was superior.
5. It was a daft idea to go hiking without checking the weather first.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daft>