

DAGGLE

Meaning: DAGGLE (verb): to walk or move through water or mud, causing it to splash or become messy.

1. The children had to daggle through the muddy field after the rainstorm.
2. She watched the dog daggle in the puddles, splashing water everywhere.
3. His clothes were soaked and dirty after he decided to daggle in the wet grass.
4. The artist captured the moment perfectly, showing the figures daggling in the downpour.
5. As they returned from their walk, their shoes were left daggled and caked with mud.
6. The child loved to daggle her feet in the cool water of the lake.
7. After the rain, the dog would often daggle through the muddy yard, creating a mess.
8. As they walked along the beach, she would daggle her toes in the sand, savoring the moment.
9. He couldn't resist the urge to daggle his fingers through the tall grass as they strolled by.
10. The artist decided to daggle paint onto the canvas, embracing a more spontaneous style.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daggle>