

DAGLOCK

Meaning: Daglock: a strong locking mechanism, typically used to secure heavy doors or gates.

1. The contractor decided to use a daglock for its superior strength in securing the heavy gate.
2. During the renovation, they discovered that the ancient door was held in place by a traditional daglock.
3. She admired the craftsmanship of the daglock, which was both functional and beautifully designed.
4. In the local museum, a display showcased the evolution of locks, including the fascinating daglock.
5. To ensure the safety of their belongings, they installed a daglock that was nearly impossible to pick.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/daglock>